Creative Europe – MEDIA programme provides financing for the development of new Business models for the distribution of European audiovisual works in the digital era.

Audiovisual professionals, companies and start-ups active in the field of new technologies: be creative, don't miss the opportunities offered by the new call for proposals "Promotion of European works online".

With a global budget of EUR 9,41 M and a maximum financial support of 60% of the project's budget, this scheme supports new business models and innovative tools in order to improve the circulation, visibility and global audience of European audiovisual works in the digital world.

Applications for this call can be submitted for one or more of the following actions:

Action 1: Support for the promotion, marketing and branding activities of existing VOD services

Action 2: Support for the assembly and delivery of digital 'online ready' packages of European audiovisual works

Action 3: Support for projects that demonstrate innovative strategies for distributing and promoting European audiovisual works.

The Action 3 includes support for audience development initiatives focusing on innovative and participatory strategies to reach out to wider audiences.

Deadline for submission of proposals: 5 April 2018
