

Ewelina Gordziejuk

Producer

Showrunner and executive producer of the series Kajko i Kokosz (Kayko and Kokosh). Member of the Polish Filmmakers Association and the Polish Producers Alliance, co-founder of the Animation Club at Polish Producers Alliance, board member of the Association of Polish Animation Producers. As a production manager and producer, she has collaborated on over 90 film productions, including series for children and many original films.

Since 2012, she has been running the EGoFILM Animation Studio, producing films and series such as Kicia Kocia (Kitty Cat), Żubr Pompik (Pompik the Bison), Wiking Tappi (Tappi the Viking), Ryjówka Przeznaczenia (Shrew of Destiny) and many others. Among projects performed by the studio is the tv series Kajko and Kokosz which was launched on Netflix this year. It is the first Netflix original animation in Polish. It is an adaptation of a comic book created by Janusz Christa. EGoFILM EGoFILM's productions were appreciated and received awards at many festivals, including O!PLA, Tarnów Film Award and Etiuda&Anima.