

Magdalena Dźbik

European Commission

Policy Officer, Audiovisual Industry and MEDIA Support Programmes

Policy Officer at Directorate General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CONNECT), European Commission.

She has a background working as a lawyer in the Polish administration in the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage. In 2016 she joined the European Commission, contributing to the development of audiovisual policy in the Creative Europe MEDIA Programme, in particular in the areas of support to European independent producers in the creation of documentaries, animation and fiction TV series with a potential of cross-border circulation.