

Producer

She stared her professional career as journalist and researcher in the Newsweek Polska, as documentalist she partipated in the program "Woman at the End of the World" in the TVN television. She worked on the organization of Fryderyk Awards Ceremony and collaborated with the Independent Film Foundation during the Polish Film Awards (Orly) and other events.

Few years ago she met Maria Gołoś and decided to establish Rozbrat Films. Monica has worked as coworker also in RE Studio, where she produced two films of Maciej Pieprzyca: "Jestem mordercą" and "Icarus. The Legend of Mietek Kosz", which received many awards on the Polish and international festivals. She is working on the film about Kalina Jędrusik "Bo we mnie jest seks", which premiere is planned in autumn 2021. Rozbrat Films works on development of several projects: they produced the Agnieszka Elbanowska's short "Relax", created the YT series "Co robimy w zamknięciu", and last year their docuseries "W rytmie wolności" premiered on Canal+.